Could You Spot a Loan Shark?

As many as 1.08 million people in England could be in debt to an illegal money lender. With the rise in the cost of living we are very concerned this figure could become even higher.

If you have not yet attended a session please book yourself a place on one of the seminars listed below to learn more about how you can help these people. If you would like to book an online session just for your organisation please don't hesitate to get in touch.
